Busy Day in Snohomish on Saturday

Snohomish Easter Parade – 11:00 a.m.

The Snohomish Easter parade will be held on Saturday, April 19th at 11:00 a.m. on First Street between Maple Avenue and Avenue D. Remember that there will be traffic impacts around the historic downtown area prior to and following the parade. Immediately after the parade, there will be an Easter Bonnet contest on Avenue A south of First Street. For those unable to attend, the parade will be streamed live online at <http://www.snohomishtimes.com/Easter2014.cfm>.

Eason Invitational Track & Field Meet

The annual Eason Invitational Track & Field Meet will be held at Snohomish High School on Saturday, April 19th. The meet begins at 10:00 a.m., with the final events scheduled to begin at 2:15 p.m. Visit <http://shs.sno.wednet.edu/easoninvite/> for a full schedule of events. This meet attracts nearly 1,200 athletes and their families to our community for the day. Expect some traffic congestion in the area of the High School throughout the day.

2013 Snohomish Chamber Awards

The Snohomish Chamber of Commerce presented their annual Volunteer and Special Recognition awards at the April 15th Membership luncheon meeting.

On April 1, 2014, the Snohomish City Council proclaimed April as Volunteer Month in Snohomish. The Snohomish Chamber annually designates their April Membership luncheon program to present the previous year's awards for Chamber Volunteer of the Year; Outstanding Youth of the Year Volunteer; and Spirit of Snohomish Community Service. The 2013 awards were presented by Chamber President Eldon Wexler, Kla Ha Ya Village.

Darrell Charles, Snohomish Storage on Bickford, received the Volunteer of the Year Award for his service as a Chamber Board member, GroundFrog Day Chair, Annual BBQ Chair, and volunteer at the Snohomish Wine Festival and Classic Car & Hot Rod Display. The Snohomish Kiwanis Glacier Peak High School Key Club received the Youth of the Year award for their club's assistance with several community events and school projects. Marci Volmer, Director of the Snohomish Boys and Girls Club, was recognized for her dedication to the youth of Snohomish and service to the community through a long list of programs and projects that she coordinates. Marci is the Chamber Board Secretary and volunteers her time to several community outreach programs.

Roy Tellof, Jr. and Madeleine Boucher received a special appreciation award for their contributions to the Snohomish Chamber Classic Car & Hot Rod Display. Kim Thunder was also recognized for her time donated as the Chamber office volunteer.
