A PROCLAMATION OF THE CITY OF SNOHOMISH RECOGNIZING MARCH 2025 AS AGRICULTURE APPRECIATION MONTH

WHEREAS, the City of Snohomish is home to a rich agricultural heritage, with farms, nurseries, and related agricultural businesses contributing to the local economy, culture, and character of the community; and

WHEREAS, local farms provide essential benefits including fresh, locally grown produce, dairy, meat, and other products that contribute to food security, sustainability, and the overall health and well-being of Snohomish residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, agri-tourism plays a vital role in the economic development of the City of Snohomish by attracting visitors from across the region, supporting local businesses, and creating jobs through farm tours, pumpkin patches, U-pick opportunities, seasonal festivals, wineries, farmers markets, and other agricultural experiences; and

WHEREAS, the economic impact of agriculture and agri-tourism extends beyond the farms themselves, benefiting local restaurants, lodging, retail businesses, and service providers, thereby fostering a vibrant and diverse local economy; and

WHEREAS, the preservation of farmland and the promotion of agri-tourism align with the City's commitment to sustainable development, environmental stewardship, and maintaining the rural charm and historical character of the Snohomish community; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes the need to support policies, programs, and initiatives that protect agricultural lands, promote agri-tourism, and enhance the economic viability of local farms and related businesses;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Linda Redmon, do hereby proclaim March 2025 as

AGRICULTURE APPRECIATION MONTH

The City of Snohomish acknowledges and supports the vital contributions of local farms and agri-tourism businesses to the local economy, environment, and community identity and will continue to collaborate with local farmers, agricultural organizations, business owners, and residents to promote and enhance agri-tourism opportunities.

SIGNED by the Mayor of Snohomish this 18th day of March, 2025.

Linda Redmon, Mayor
